

Join RCCA

• RCCA CAN HELP WITH •

• Entrepreneurship and small business assistance programs

• Community leadership development

• Civic engagement and regional planning initiatives

• Development of arts and culture

• Distance learning

• Student retention and developmental studies

• K-16 partnerships

• Workforce development

• Outreach to underserved populations

• Other strategies/programs that increase college capacity to expand educational access and build the economy

• HOW TO JOIN •

RCCA membership is open to all rural community colleges and tribal colleges that share our beliefs and values. Membership is also open to individuals (professionals and students) who want to participate in a national network for learning and advocacy on rural education and rural development.

TO JOIN, CLICK ON THE LINK BELOW, PRINT OUT THE MAMBERSHIP FORM AND MAIL IT TO THE ADDRESS LISTED BELOW:

http://ruralccalliance.org/docs/RCCA_Membership_Invoice_2009-2010.doc

If you have questions regarding membership, please contact:

RCCA President, Dr. Randy Smith

RCCA National Office

2801 N Main

Altus, OK 73521

randy.smith@ruralccalliance.org

580-477-7890

• MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS •

RCCA members represent diverse regions including Appalachia, the South, the Southwest, and the Northern Plains Indian Reservations.

As part of a network of rural colleges facing similar challenges, members gain exposure to new ideas and a stimulating community of peers. RCCA activities and services include:

- • Annual conference on community colleges and rural development
- • Visits to model rural development and education programs
- • Advocacy for rural colleges and the communities they serve — a national voice for rural education and rural development
- • Networking for grant opportunities
- • Exposure to effective strategies in education and rural development
- • Participation in peer-to-peer technical assistance network

Update:

Members now will also receive a personalized email address @ruralccalliance.org which will have:

- • Full spam blocking support from Google
- • Use of shared calendaring within RCCA
- • Use of shared documents within RCCA
- • Use of shared websites within RCCA
- • Google chat with RCCA members built-in